From Pain to Pride

Gender-Based Violence and Homophobia

From Pain to Pride – Gender-Based Violence and Homophobia is a challenging full day workshop that will provide participants with definitions, understanding and strategies necessary to address the impact of gender-based violence and homophobia. With recent research identifying the alarming rate of these forms of harassment and assault in school settings, it is up to everyone to take ownership of the rights and responsibilities we share. Only then will we understand the seriousness of gender-based violence and homophobia, and work to stop it.
